Welcome

Foreword by De Montfort University's Vice-Chancellor

Welcome to the 2021 De Montfort University (DMU) graduation ceremony at the City University of Hong Kong.

As always, graduation is a celebration of outstanding individual achievements, and also a moment to honour the long friendship and strong partnership that connect CityU and DMU, built on our common values. We share a commitment to excellence, to a truly global outlook, and to teaching and experiences that give graduates confidence and capability in a changing world.

Students receiving their certificates are quite rightly centre-stage, but it is right and fitting that all of those who have supported the students on their journey – their families, friends and teachers – are also part of the celebration. They too deserve a share of the applause!

Every student understands graduation is an important personal landmark, this year that is particularly the case given the difficulties you have overcome to successfully complete your studies during the pandemic. You will now go on to find success in roles across the globe, as others have done. You should understand that every opportunity ahead is a chance for you to develop and grow – and to help others to do the same. Success comes with a responsibility to use one's knowledge and expertise for that greater good. On behalf of DMU, I hope and believe that today's graduates will do precisely that.

I wish everyone involved today every success.

Welcome

Welcome from the Director of CityU SCOPE

Congratulations to all BA (Hons) Business Administration and Management / BA (Hons) Business and Management and BA (Hons) Public Administration and Management graduating students! It has been a pleasure and a privilege to have been part of your journey over the past years. Your dedication and perseverance are truly remarkable.

Established since 1991 for 30 years, CityU SCOPE has been offering a wide range of professionally-oriented programmes in Hong Kong. We have nurtured more than 32,000 degree graduates, including over 4,600 graduates through successful partnership with DMU. Many of our graduates are now making significant contributions to various sectors/industries.

Let's take time to celebrate joyously as your hard work, resilience and determination has guided you to this significant point of your lives. Now is the time to seize the future as there are countless opportunities available for you in your next chapter.

I wish you every success in your future endeavours!

John W.K. Leung, PhD, EdD
Director,
School of Continuing and Professional Education
City University of Hong Kong

The School of Continuing and Professional Education of City University of Hong Kong (CityU SCOPE) has been a pioneer and major provider of quality professional and life-long education for professional advancement, retraining and self-driven transformational development to align with socio-economic needs as well as technological and global changes. Those who are motivated to upgrade and improve themselves continuously, regardless of their learning needs and career orientation, will find that CityU SCOPE's vast range of programmes are useful, practical and enriching to facilitate their progression in life and career.

Established since 1991 for 30 years, SCOPE has successfully nurtured more than 32,000 university graduates in collaboration with our partner universities overseas. Apart from offering undergraduate and postgraduate-level education at full-time or part-time modes in a wide variety of academic disciplines, SCOPE has been providing abundant learning opportunities to support tens of thousands of adult learners in exploring, pursuing and upgrading their continuing professional development, lifelong learning goals and career success.

This year, the School continues to offer a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes leading to non-local awards in various disciplines. The non-local 3-year degree and top-up degree programmes offered by CityU SCOPE have been successfully accredited by the Hong Kong Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications (HKCAAVQ). The accredited status has not only assured the quality of these programmes but also the eligibility of our full-time students to apply for government grants and loans and to participate in relevant government internship and scholarship schemes. The academic qualifications of these programmes are also recognised by the Government of the HKSAR for civil service appointment.

At SCOPE, we take enormous pride in ourselves on the diversity of our programmes and the good standard of our graduates. With the concerted efforts of the dedicated and experienced teaching team of CityU SCOPE, together with our overseas partners, we are determined to continue to provide you with an engaging and rewarding learning experience that will benefit you in different ways of your knowledge-seeking journeys.

Today, as you graduate from DMU, you become part of the DMU global family. We hope that you have enjoyed your studies at our partner institution, CityU SCOPE. Successfully combining your studies with full-time jobs – as many of you have done – is an amazing achievement, and you should be incredibly proud.

The strong relationship between CityU SCOPE and DMU has been built over two decades. During the past 20 years, the Public Administration and Management BA (Hons) degree has become one of the most highly rated in Hong Kong. It has been studied by hundreds of politicians, police, Government workers and private-sector professionals.

In addition, both the Business Administration and Management BA (Hons) degree and Public Administration and Management degree courses have been honoured with validation by the Hong Kong Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications (HKCAAVQ), further underlining its high quality and strong relevance to industry.

Your hard work, dedication and enjoyment of the degree courses are all crucial to our partnership and we are delighted to hear so many stories from graduates about their successes.

News from DMU

Students and staff from DMU contributed more than 2,000 hours of volunteering to help city projects during the pandemic; this ranged from distributing DMU-made PPE kit to schools, hospitals and care homes to offering the elderly and isolated friendship.

DMU was named in the top three for both Graduate Outcomes and Excellence in Digital Innovation in this year's UK Whatuni Student Choice Awards, and our work to help students gain job confidence has been nominated in the Outstanding Support for Students category of the prestigious Times Higher Education Awards. Initiatives like our Leicester1000 are designed to place graduates in highly skilled jobs and connect them with upwards of 200 employers across our city.

The National Cyber Security Centre – a leading authority in that field – has named DMU a gold standard Academic Centre of Excellence in Cyber Security Education, a first in our region.

The new DMU vice-chancellor, Professor Katie Normington, has launched a special scholarship scheme called Gifted Beyond Their Years, which provides financial support to students whose challenging circumstances mean they might not otherwise be able to attend university.

- 1 Students participate in an Experiential Workshop.
- 2 Students join a site visit at the Legislative Council.
- 3 Students visit Leicester in the United Kingdom.
- 4 Students taking part in team-building activities.

LAU Ka Wan, Joanne

Business Administration and Management
BA (Hons)
Graduation year: 2021 (Full-time Full-degree)

Joanne Lau graduated in 2021 with a first-class honours degree in Business Administration and Management (BABAM) with the best dissertation award.

“During the three years at SCOPE, I have learned a lot, and I am very grateful to every professor for teaching me. They have given me a lot of support and encouragement. They are willing to spend extra time to guide us and provide us with help. The whole campus always has a positive learning atmosphere.” Joanne said.

“The time management skills acquired at university are valuable to me, I have learnt to manage time effectively in the past few years, especially when I had to cope with school work, part-time jobs, and extracurricular activities at the same time. When you are given many different responsibilities, the ability to prioritise things and manage your time well is the key to success”.

Furthermore, I have learnt to embrace criticism. If you fail to achieve an expected result in an assignment, you may feel frustrated. But I have learnt how to face criticism and enhance my capability. No matter which industry we are in, we need to be able to embrace feedback rather than let criticism undermine our confidence and motivation,” said Joanne.

“Although we often say “opportunities are reserved for those who are prepared”, only those who learn to seize opportunities and are willing to make attempts will gain extra rewards. We must thank our Programme Leader for the school's provision of internship at different international companies and her unfailing support, letting us make continual progress.” added Joanne.

Joanne believes that some students may have doubts about their career prospects, but the merit of the business management programme is that it can bring about many possibilities. After reading the BABAM programme, she has a critical understanding of a broad range of topics in the field of business and management. Therefore, she can identify her career aspiration and opt for companies which are attractive to her. She states that “business graduates can confidently play different roles and work at changing environments as well as capitalise on the skills and knowledge learnt almost everywhere.”

LEUNG Ho Chiu, Ronald

Business Administration and Management
BA (Hons)
Graduation year: 2021 (Part-time Top-up)

Ronald Leung graduated with first-class honours in Business Administration and Management (BABAM) in 2021. He believes that “well begun is half done” and “a craftsman who wants to do his work well must first sharpen his tools” (好開始為成功的一半.工欲善其事,必先利其器.).

“In 2019, I decided to read BABAM run by De Montfort University via CityU SCOPE, a harmonious learning place which has facilitated my knowledge enhancement, offered me opportunities to network, and developed my lifelong learning abilities. BABAM isn't a programme just for learning theories and acquiring a good GPA, but it also helps us understand how to make critical decisions using conceptual frameworks. More importantly, it enables us to add on our credentials to adapt to the fast-changing business environment,” said Ronald.

“The two academic years have brought us many memorable experiences: We have not only encountered the social unrest which disrupted the class schedule but we were also susceptible to the pandemic spread which has changed our learning environment. Fortunately, the School has quickly reacted to the changes, which has enabled us to learn with the aid of technological devices. Using Zoom, recorded video clips, and other interactive online media as well as additional one-on-one consultations, the teachers have explored different possible ways to ensure our learning. The unprecedented scale of input from both the lecturers and programme leaders has demonstrated to us a key means to success – trust,” added Ronald.

“I would say to everyone anytime anywhere that I am proud of being one of the students of CityU SCOPE and De Montfort University. Undeniably, it's one of the best decisions I have ever made in my life. I hope you will have a remarkable learning experience. Equip yourselves by coming to CityU SCOPE. Opportunities are always available for the ones who are prepared to learn.” said Ronald.

LAW King Yin

BA (Hons) Public Administration and Management
Graduation year: 2021 (Part-time Top-up)

I have been working in the surveying industry for about 6 years. I enrolled on the Public Administration and Management programme in 2019 to improve my competitiveness and broaden my horizons.

Before that, I knew nothing about public administration. After completing this programme, I gained a better understanding of the government's policy making process and structure, particularly the module on "Public policy making." It's about the policy cycle for decision making; the more familiar you are with the stage, the more efficiently you can publish a policy. It coincided with the social movement in Hong Kong that year, so I could easily apply what I learned, such as commenting on government activity through various management theories, policy processes, and analysing the government's policies in the public administration perspective.

Moreover, taking the Housing Specialisation elective modules also enabled my career to be more professional and diversified. In particular, the licensing system for the property management industry was implemented on August 1, 2020. For this reason, before I switch to this professional industry, I need to equip myself. Through this course, I have a deeper understanding of Hong Kong's housing policy formulation, housing market and property management. The programme broadened my horizons, but also helped me lay a solid foundation in the field of property management.

Despite the fact that this programme was intense, and that studying while working was also stressful. I believe it's critical for us to upskill multitasking and time management capabilities, particularly for those aspiring to develop their careers in this industry. This is an excellent chance to put your skills to the test.

Lastly, I would like to express gratitude to our lecturers and tutors. They all have a wealth of experience, not only imparting knowledge from the bottom of their hearts, but also selflessly sharing their valuable working experience with us. They always encourage us to ask questions in class and are open to hearing our thoughts on the problems we face at work. This programme was extremely beneficial to me.

Congratulations graduates on your success!
Wishing you all the best for the future and all its challenges and opportunities.

BA (Hons) Public Administration and Management
Graduation year: 2021 (Part-time Top-up)

I graduated from the Public Administration and Management (BAPAM) programme in 2021. Before studying the BAPAM, I took a few years out. In 2016, I completed an associate degree at the College of International Education with a major in Bilingual Language and Literature Studies. The COVID-19 pandemic and the social movement in 2019 and 2020 was a hard time for us. The difficulty of making a living drove the necessity to obtain a bachelor's degree. BAPAM, a short term top-up full-time programme is perfect, the low cost drew my attention. The long history and the excellent teaching were some of the reasons why I applied to this programme.

Unlike other students, I've never studied a social science program before. I Lacked the foundational knowledge of Public Administration and Management, which made studying the BAPAM programme tough at the beginning. Thanks to the patience of the tutors, tough times did not last long. The tutors were very kind and provided a lot of information exceeding my expectations of the programme. The Tutors enriched our basic knowledge of public issues and public policies, by giving us detailed information. Also, most of the modules offer chances for us to present a topic, which improves our skill of individual thinking, collecting data and public speaking. Discussions are required after presentations, which improves our skill of critical thinking.

On the programme, experimental workshops were taught creatively, every group was assigned as a stakeholder in a public issue, to act in a city forum and write a simulation report. Our group was assigned as 'media' in The New Territories Land (exemption) Bill. We had to hold a forum and prepare thought-provoking questions.

School life in the past year was challenging but meaningful. I am happy to have support from tutors and friends who share the same goal.

DMU recently celebrated 150 years of transformational teaching

Achievements

De Montfort University Leicester (DMU) is a dynamic, 21st-century UK university with a global outlook.

DMU recently marked 150 years in education and training, and is continuing to build a reputation founded on our clear focus on graduate careers – DMU Works was named Best University Careers/Employability Service at the UK's National Undergraduate Employability Awards – and on international collaboration, including with the United Nations.

Ours is the only higher education institution in Britain to be a global hub for one of the UN's Sustainable Development Goals – SDG 16 to promote peace, justice and strong institutions. The SDGs were introduced by the UN with the aim of improving the lives of millions of people by 2030.

We offer every student access to a welcoming scholarly environment where they can expand their knowledge, enjoy exciting life experiences and increase their appeal to employers. Our new strategy commits us to discovering gateways of opportunity that empower students, staff and our community to create a fairer society.
